GOVERNOR APPOINTS BRODMAN TO MARICOPA SUPERIOR COURT BENCH

PHOENIX – Governor Janet Napolitano announced today that she has appointed Roger Earl Brodman to serve as a Judge in the Maricopa County Superior Court.

Brodman co-founded and currently runs the valley firm Holden Brodman PLC, where most of his time is spent doing general construction law. The Nebraska Native has practiced law for 24 years in California and Arizona, including in Phoenix since 1985.

Brodman graduated with a degree in industrial engineering from the University of Nebraska, before moving on to law school at Stanford University. His summers during law school were spent as a summer associate for several firms in Nebraska and Dewey Ballentine in New York.

Brodman has been on the American Arbitration Association's construction law panel since 1992, and is regularly sought as a private mediator by members of the construction industry.
